

Thoughts (Prelude)

Ella Mai

Wake up gotta figure out what's going on
No makeup gotta figure this out on my own
You came and went like the wind (like the wind)
You undressed my soul, you left me skinned

Wake up gotta figure out my whereabouts
You fake up gotta figure out for real this time
But how can I see sense
When you left me in such suspense

We're miles apart and we're worlds away
You only came to listen when I came to stay
Give me just one moment for these thoughts

We're miles apart and we're worlds away
You only came to listen when I came to stay
Give me just one moment for these thoughts

(Thoughts) [x4]
For these thoughts [x2]
Thoughts
Give me just one moment
