

Who Knew

Ella Mai

We go back
We go forth
We go round and round
You be there
I be here
So I don't know how
Who knew?
That you ever will break through
Who knew?
Who knew?

Bout time for some real shit
Need to tell you how I'm feeling
Since you talking to the realest
I'm just trying to really stack millions
Like to do it
A little lovin' won't kill it
And oh wow
That I've been by myself
But oh now
Could be something to invest in
The dots connecting

We go back
We go forth
We go round and round
You be there
I be here
So I don't know how
Who knew?
That you ever will break through
Who knew?
Who knew?

I'm just trying to figure how you doing what you doing
How you turning to the only one that I'm pursuing
All I'm trying to say is
Who knew?
That you ever will break through
Who knew?
Who knew?

Got me feeling like I'm spinning
Cause you're so appealing
We ain't gotta conceal this
Damn you got me all up on the ceiling
We can seal it
Tell me where you wanna steer it
Cause I'm down
And if you wanna be Around
Baby keep it in the moment
Ain't no telling where we going

We go back
We go forth
We go round and round

You be there
I be here
So I don't know how
Who knew?
That you ever will barge through
Who knew?
Who knew?

I'm just trying to figure how you doing what you doing
How you turning to the only one that I'm pursuing
All I'm trying to say is
Who knew?
That you ever will break through
Who knew?
Who knew?

I'm just not sure of how you got me all in love
Boy you got my attention, don't you?
It don't matter
Cause with you I feel better
Crazy how you just barge right in
Yeah (don't break my heart)

I'm just trying to figure how you doing what you doing
How you turning to the only one that I'm pursuing
All I'm trying to say is
Who knew?
That you ever will break through
Who knew?
Who knew?

I'm just trying to figure how you doing what you doing
How you turning to the only one that I'm pursuing
All I'm trying to say is
Who knew?
That you ever will break through
Who knew?
Who knew?

I know I probably don't tell you enough, but, I really really care about you
. And I just want you to know, you got me one hundred
