

He Asked For It

Ella Red

I squished his head like a berry would pop between my thumbs
He was almost begging for it, I wasn't the only one
I watched him walking the pavement, he was out here searching for blood
I just gave him what he wanted so, that the job could be done

He asked for it (He asked for it, asked for it, asked for it)
He wanted this (He wanted this, wanted this, wanted this)
He's in a pit
Man, what a bitch (Man, what a bitch, what a bitch, what a bitch)

It really wasn't too hard to read it between the lines
Heard a cacophony chorus screaming for him to be mine
That bitch, he screamed a little too when he saw my face in his eyes
He asked for the blood that I gave him when he was out walking that night

He asked for it (He asked for it, asked for it, asked for it)
He wanted this (He wanted this, wanted this, wanted this)
He's in a pit (He's in a pit, he's in a pit, he's in a pit)
Man, what a bitch (Man, what a bitch, what a bitch)
I already told you that he asked it, asked it
Digging like a dog for your casket, casket
Thought you said you like your girls savage, savage (Ah, ah, ah)
He's in a pit, he wanted this, he asked for it
I already told you that he asked it, asked it
Let's see who can tattletale the fastest, fastest
I'll bury the body like a bad bitch, bad bitch (Ah, ah, ah)
He's in a pit, he wanted this, he asked for it

I told him why I was there, he was never ever mislead
I am the judgement and jury watching him walking the ledge
We spoke for a moment or two, he didn't have enough breath
But in the end, we both agreed that he was better off dead

Asked it, asked it
Digging like a dog for your casket, casket
Thought you said you like your girls savage, savage
He's in a pit, he wanted this, he asked for it
I already told you that he asked it, asked it
Let's see who can tattletale the fastest, fastest
I'll bury the body like a bad bitch, bad bitch (Ah, ah, ah)
He's in a pit, he wanted this, he asked for it
