

Representative

Ella Red

I thought that I knew you
But it wasn't you, just a representative
Boy, you put on quite the show
A compelling Romeo with an Oscar worth love

Pride's a tough pill to swallow
Give me back my heart you borrowed

I want you, but you're somebody else
A representative of yourself
It's the face you use to get what you want
I fell in love with the person you're not

Kiss, you'd kiss me just because
You couldn't get enough 'til you had enough of us
You'd laugh like I was Jimmy Fallon
And we could talk for hours 'til you got tired of my tone

Pride's a tough pill to swallow
Give me back my heart you borrowed

I want you, but you're somebody else
A representative of yourself
It's the face you use to get what you want
I fell in love with the person you're not

Representative, yeah, it's your representative
Representative, it's just your representative
Representative, yeah, it's your representative
Representative, it was just your representative

After the honeymoon's over
A chameleon changes color
After the honeymoon's over
A chameleon changes color, color, color

I want you, but you're somebody else
A representative of yourself

I want you, but you're somebody else
A representative of yourself
It's the face you use to get what you want
I fell in love with the person you're not

Representative, yeah, it's your representative
Representative, it's just your representative
Representative, yeah, it's your representative
Representative, it was just your representative
