

Dumb Dudes

Ella Vos

Dumb dudes everywhere I go
Into every room, looking for a show
Dumb fools make you know it all
Making all the rules, playing with my heart

And I'm mystified by you again, mm
Terrified I'll fall back into your deep swirl

Dumb dudes living in my house
Eating all the food, always let me down
I choose, I wanna be with you
'Cause even though you drive 'em crazy
I still love you, cowboy baby

And I'm mystified by you again, mm
Terrified I'll fall back into your deep swirl
Mesmerized by every kiss, mm
Petrified, but I still give you my whole world

Dumb dudes, you know who you are
Don't have to be rude, you can change your heart
