Wish that I could give you up
Burn the pages just because
Nothing's making sense to me right now

Looking through my camera roll
Fell in deep and lost control
Now I see your face in every crowd

I'm spiraling
Messages left unread
Said I wouldn't call again
Have I lost all self-control?
I can't resist
Temporary state of bliss
Even if it's all pretend
Cos I'm stuck inside the scroll

Saw you at the grocery store
Heard your voice, tried to ignore
Never can forgive you for that kiss

I'm spiraling
Said I wouldn't call again
Have I lost all self-control?
I can't resist
Temporary state of bliss
Even if it's all pretend
Cos I'm stuck inside the scroll

I'm spiraling
Said I wouldn't call again
Have I lost all self-control?
I can't resist
Temporary state of bliss
Even if it's all pretend
Cos I'm stuck inside the scroll
