

I made a wish, we'll make a scene
She sits above the American Dream
I don't wanna rush, I don't wanna wait
Always afraid I would throw it away

And there's a lot of Things I do

I need your loving moment
I need the truth for a minute
Tell me the secrets you keep
When I'm not awake, when I'm not awake
I need your loving moment
I need the truth for a minute
Tell me the secrets you keep
When I'm not awake, when I'm not awake

Make me a movie now, paint me a dream
Train ride to Paris at night by the sea
Open a window, let me in
Some things are broken, some things begin

And then there's a lot of Things you say to me
There's a lot of
Things I do

I need your loving moment
I need the truth for a minute
Tell me the secrets you keep
When I'm not awake, when I'm not awake
I need your loving moment
I need the truth for a minute
Tell me the secrets you keep
When I'm not awake, when I'm not awake

Tell me what you thinking 'bout, you thinking 'bout
Tell me what you dreaming 'bout, you dreaming 'bout
Tell me what you thinking 'bout, you thinking 'bout
Tell me what you dreaming 'bout, tell me what

'Cause I need your loving moment
I need the truth for a minute
Tell me the secrets you keep, all that you do
When I'm not awake, when I'm not awake
I need your loving moment
I need the truth for a minute
Tell me the secrets you keep
When I'm not awake, when I'm not awake
