

She

Ellen Krauss

I'm the proudest person at the party
They're all looking at us baby, but it's not me
And it feels so right
And it's my show
But it's your night, and I
Don't even make sense of the things you say to me
And sometimes I don't even know if I agree
But it's just how we do things now, and it's

In the kitchen all around
And I miss it all the time
On the subway in a line, yeah
It's you
It's you
It's only you

She, she's talking to me, and hey
She's got her hand in my hair
I'm okay
Yeah, I'm okay
And I don't care what she's thinking
She, she's talking to me, and hey
She's got her hand in my hair
I'm okay
Yeah, I'm okay
And I don't care what she's thinking

Go ahead, you can wear it like you own it
In the backseat of the cab, it's a moment
And it feels so right
And it's good times
And it's red wine, and I
Don't even make sense of the things you say to me
And sometimes I don't even know if I agree
But it's just how we do things now, and it's

In the kitchen all around
And I miss it all the time
On the subway in a line, yeah
It's you
It's you
It's only you

She, she's talking to me, and hey
She's got her hand in my hair
I'm okay
Yeah, I'm okay
And I don't care what she's thinking
She, she's talking to me, and hey
She's got her hand in my hair
I'm okay
Yeah, I'm okay
And I don't care what she's thinking

Are you even aware that you're everywhere

And I feel like I stare, I can't stop
And I say that you're mine to them all the time
Yeah, you're keeping me up
But don't stop

She, she
(She, she)
I'm okay
I'm okay
And I don't care what she's thinking
She, she's talking to me, and hey
She's got her hand in my hair
I'm okay
Yeah, I'm okay
And I don't care what she's thinking
She, she
I'm okay
She, she
I'm okay
