

TRAITOR

Elley Duhé

Givin' it all to take it back
You're the only taste in my mouth
The fire that we made
Went and burned the whole damn place down

Cause everything yes
Never too much
For you got no borders
And inside this bed
We make sense again
I'm back where I started
And you taught me this
Are we playin' chess
I play your emotions

So I take my heart and run for good
Turn away
I will be dead and gone
Before you hear thing

Givin' me up
I'm givin' you up
I'm givin' us up
Surrender all, a traitor now
A traitor of your love
So I take my heart and run for good

And everything I done for you
Comes with a price I knew
Ooh...
It's pullin' the trigger with safety off
It's lovin' and lyin' and switchin' what side you're on
On...

Cause everything yes
Never too much
For you got no borders
And inside this bed
We make sense again
I'm back where I started
And you taught me this
Are we playin' chess
I play your emotions, emotions

So I take my heart and run for good
Turn away
I will be dead and gone
Before you hear thing

Givin' me up
I'm givin' you up
I'm givin' us up

(For good)

(For good, for good, good...)
(Oohh...)
