Do You Remember

Ellie Goulding

Do you remember?

We were kings of the town, upside-downed (Oh no)
Warriors of the streets, and we screamed out loud
Gonna take the world all by ourselves
There was something in the air (Oh no)
'Cause nothing was as big as the dreams we shared

Now what could compare?
You were my protection
Will you be there for me now?
I know we had our problems
But we always come back around
'Cause you're always my reflection
Will I see you in the crowd?
You were my protection
Now I hold my ground

Do you remember when I gave you life? (Oh no)
Do you remember when we used to hide? (Oh no)
Do you remember we were so alive? (Oh no)
Do you remember? We were so damn wrong, it was right (Oh no)
Do you remember?

We would fight 'til the death just for fun (Oh no)
Pretend you would lose so I think I've won
Yeah, we could be anyone

You were my protection
Will you be there for me now?
I know we had our problems
But we always come back around
'Cause you're always my reflection
Will I see you in the crowd?
You were my protection
Now I hold my ground

Do you remember when I gave you life? (Oh no)
Do you remember when we used to hide? (Oh no)
Do you remember we were so alive? (Oh no)
Do you remember? We were so damn wrong, it was right (Oh no)
Do you remember?

I still remember when you gave me life
I still remember when we used to hide
But our time together was the time of my life
Yeah, our time together was the time of my life (Ooh)
(Oh no, oh no, oh no)

Do you remember?
Do you remember when I gave you life?
(When I gave you life, oh no)
Do you remember when we used to hide?
(Oh, when we used to hide, oh no)
Do you remember we were so alive? (Woo ooh, oh no)
Do you remember? We were so damn wrong, it was right
(We were so damn wrong, it was right, oh no)

Do you remember?
