Constellations

Ellie Holcomb

There once was a season of infinite light
When the distance from heaven was not far behind
I was close to You
I was close to You

So carry me back to that moment in time
When the colors and fragments were beautifully bright
How I long for You
How I long for You

Out here in the dark
Underneath a canopy of stars
Constellations falling from Your heart
Tell me that I'm not alone
'Cause honestly I'm so alone
So promise me I'm not alone

How many miles does my soul have to drive
Before Love can collide with the mess in my life
That's not hard for you
That's not hard for you

'Cause You see through fragments of color and light
But I'm losing my way and I'm losing my mind
I can't see the truth
Help me see the truth

Out here in the dark
Underneath a canopy of stars
Constellations falling from Your heart
Tell me that I'm not alone
'Cause honestly I'm so alone
So promise me I'm not alone

When I felt the light of the moon on my face
The Memory of sun that'd been shining for days
You've already been in this desolate place
You've already been here and You've made a way
Pinpricks of glory strung out across the sky
Memories of darkness undone by the light
Reminding me you are right here by my side
You're here by my side
You're here by my side

Out here in the dark
Underneath a canopy of stars
Constellations falling from Your heart
Tell me that I'm not alone
I know that I'm never alone
'Cause You find me and bring me back home
And I'm never alone
Out here in the dark
