

I Will Never Be the Same

Ellie Holcomb

When You rolled the stone away
When You walked out of the grave
You were standing in the light of day
Everything changed
You said, "Do not be afraid"
You were scarred, to heal the pain
You defeated death and shame
And everything's changed, everything's changed

And when I mess it up
You say Your love's enough
You say You'll never leave or forsake me
And when I come undone
You are the only One
To say You'll hold me now and forever

And I... I-I, will never be the same
I... I-I, will never be the same

When You rolled the stone away
I was lifted from the grave
And now I'm standing in the light of day
Everything's changed
I don't have to be afraid
'Cause You're with me in the pain
You free me from all my shame
Everything's changed, everything's changed

And when I mess it up
You say Your love's enough
You say You'll never leave or forsake me
And when I come undone
You are the only One
To say You'll hold me now and forever
And when I mess it up
You say Your love's enough
You say You'll never leave or forsake me
And when I come undone
You are the only One
To say You'll hold me now and forever

And I... I-I, will never be the same
I... I-I, will never be the same
I... I-I, will never be the same
I... I-I, will never be the same
