

Altitude

Elliot Moss

Streetlights are going out all over town
And I might know why
My feet are picking up off the ground
The way I recognize

My hometown flickering underneath my shoes
All the height in the world
And I'm sick from the altitude

And I'll be floating for the whole damn night
I'll be floating for the whole damn night
Something's in the corner of my eye
But I couldn't turn my head an inch
To save my life

They left their cars running right on the road
With the keys inside
The same Twilight Zone episode
I've got it memorized

The view from twenty-thousand feet
Is looking bleak
And my hometown's black and white
Like the mountain peaks

And I'll be floating for the whole damn night
I'll be floating for the whole damn night
Something's in the corner of my eye
But I couldn't turn my head an inch
To save my life
When I fall
I don't remember anything at all
But something's in the corner of my eye
Staring all the time
There no matter what I try

Don't look down, don't look down
(I know you wanted, you wanted, you wanted to)
Don't look down, don't look down
I know you wanted, I know you wanted to
Don't look down, don't look down
(I know you wanted, you wanted, you wanted to)
Don't look down, don't look down
(I know you wanted, you wanted, you wanted to)
It goes away, it goes away
If you want, if you want, if you want it to
But you smile, and you stay
Cause you wanted, you wanted, you wanted

Streetlights are going out all over town
And I don't know why
My feet are picking up off the ground

And I'll be floating for the whole damn night
I'll be floating for the whole damn night
Something's in the corner of my eye
But I couldn't turn my head an inch

To save my life
When I fall
I don't remember anything at all
But something's in the corner of my eye
Staring all the time
There no matter what I try
