

I'll Drive

Elliot Moss

Well don't walk home
I'll drive
Put down your phone
I wanna see your eyes
Fill the car
Up with words
But what you're thinking
You'd never say

I wanted to
I wanted to love you
I wanted to
But everything got in the way
I wanted to
Build a world out of you
I wanted to
But nothing I love ever stays

Well don't walk home
It's almost midnight
I can tell you're angry
But I don't wanna fight
We can drive in silence
In a highway trance
And dream our separate plans
In advance

I wanted to
I wanted to love you
I wanted to
But everything got in the way
I wanted to
Build a world out of you
I wanted to
But nothing I love ever stays

If you walk home
That's alright
Don't pick up your phone
Crystallize
You'd grow up fast
On your own highway
But what you're thinking
You'll never say

I'm holding my head
In my hands
Thinking where the hell did I go wrong?
I'm holding my head
In my hands
Thinking where the hell did I go wrong?

Watching my world
Turn into sand
Like it had been planning along
I'm holding my head
'Til it shakes

'Til I can change
Or 'til it breaks
'Cause I want it to
