

Magic

Elliot Moss

I can't even look
So don't look at me
As I fall into focus
Was that even me?
Can you hear the ringing?

All you wanted
Was a taste of magic
But you forgot
What happens when you have it

I can't help but stare
At myself over there
Tearing apart my old bedroom
Do I even care?
Can you hear the ringing?

I don't know where it's Where it's coming from
But it's hurting my head
Yeah it's hurting my head
Yeah it's hurting my head

All you wanted
Was a taste of magic
But you forgot
What happens when you have it
All you wanted
Was a taste of magic
But you forgot
The way it makes you get sick

How many hands
Hung out the window
Of a stranger's car
Torn apart
How long can you go
With the ringing sound
Getting loud in your head?
Yeah it's hurting your head

And it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your

All you wanted
Was a taste of magic
But you forgot
What happens when you have it
All you wanted
Was a taste of magic
But you forgot

The way it makes you get sick
Now
It's all in your head

Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your head
Yeah it's all in your
Yeah it's all in your head
