

Enough Love

Elliott Yamin

You don't know how much I need you
And I'm glad I got you by my side
Baby girl you're my anesthesia
You got me high, stepping on cloud nine
Don't wanna take for credit
I just want you to understand
Just how much you mean to me

Aha oh, oh, oh
I'm sick of talking bout it
I have been giving you enough
Enough of my love
Enough of my love
When I'm down and you know
You always get me back up on my feet
When I'm down and you know
You always get me back up on my feet

And without a doubt it
Kinda happy that you will leave

Cause,
I'm sick of talking bout it
I have been giving you enough
Enough of my love
Enough of my love
Enough of my love

Have I given you,
Have I given you,
Have I given you,
Have I given you,
Enough love

Cause,
I'm sick of talking bout it
I have been giving you enough
Enough of my love
Enough of my love
Enough of my love

See there's something else I wanna say
You don't deserve to be treated this way, no
I don't wanna act anonymous,
Break my promises
Take charge of this no more yeah

Gonna make yourself prioritize
Cause I thought about you and me
I wanna turn that frown upside down
When you come over, oh yeah
When you come around, oh yeah

All I wanna do is try to please you
I feel just looking oh so right
Forget the past like you got amnesia
Just everything will be alright

No more talking bout it
I'm giving you my love
I'm giving you my love
I'm giving you my love, love, love
