

Drunk & Angry

Elliphant

Drunk and angry
Crying in the snow
Drunk and angry
Emotional implode
Couldn't stop it
From a river to a storm
My life jacket
Fell off in the alcohol

At the first place they said I had the wrong shoes
At the second place they say I was too drunk
By the third place I really blew my chances
Kicking in the windshield of a cab

There's buzzing in my bag
The girls are on their way
So now I know everything gonna be okay
Ask if I need something from 7-Eleven
7-Eleven

But all I need right now is them
And I'm sorry
I got mad again yeah
All I need right now is my friends
And I'm sorry
I'm so sad again
Been bad again yeah

The bouncer was so rude, I tried
But when the anger comes it's like
Everything gets dark inside
I hate it when it's dark inside
So all I need right now is my friends
That will love me
When I'm sad again
Been bad again yeah

Drunk and angry
It all just fell apart
Drunk unhappy
Girl is hiding in the park
So what happened?
Well, I don't know where to start
I was smiling
Till it all just turned to dark

There's buzzing in my bag
The girls are on their way
So now I know everything gonna be okay
Ask if I need something from 7-Eleven
7-Eleven

But all I need right now is them
I got mad again yeah

I'm so sad again
Been bad again yeah

The bouncer was so rude, I tried
But when the anger comes it's like
So all I need right now is my friends
That will love me

Yeah all I wanted was to spend a little money
But the city wouldn't take my money, no
Too soon I feel the anger bubble in my tummy
Say who can stop a storm waste it all yeah

When all I wanted was to waste a little money
Be with my honeys, just go with the flow
But all I am now is drunk and angry
Mad unhappy girl crying in the snow

But the girls hit me up
My girls will lift me up
My girls hit me up
My girls will lift me up
(All I need is you)
My girls hit me up
Yeah the girls will lift me up
(All I need is you)
Yea the girls hit me up
And they ask if I need something from 7-Eleven
