Elliphant

It might not get better than this
Could be the best times of our lives
Would pick a drop and the beat
Could be the best dream I ever had
No longer broken baby you have a car
And for a year we have a house in the stars
In angel city pigeons cry in the park
'Cause angel city broke their favourite heart

But yeah, we were happy that night we met the prince
Quincy Jones and the midnight cowboy
And yeah we were happy the roads we drive
And weep for our heroes and can't hide our joy
And our dreams were endless
We were gorgeous
We belonged to the night
We're notorious Notorious

Yeah, one day I look back and I think
Those were the best days of my life
The time we spent on the way
To be the people we are now
No longer screaming baby just to be heard
Don't play with fire anymore 'cause it hurts
We soon be ashes but we still got the look
We got the house and the car insured

But yeah, we were happy that night we met the prince
Quincy Jones and the midnight cowboy
And yeah we were happy the roads we drive
And weep for our heroes and can't hide our joy
And our dreams were endless
We were gorgeous
We belonged to the night
We're notorious
Notorious (notorious)

The rest are our dogs barking to the moon
Aching for a young one to show to his room
But bitch was taken
The door was dropped
He called up on his mistress while the raven song sings his father's songs
From another time
I met a golden heart
Pumping black blood down on seven six
Who'd have known the summer of '69
Would still be around in the 21st century?
The same sunshine
And the same salt we cried but
Time is lost eventually
Because we're in paradise
Come and visit sometime
We ain't going back to
Crazy town
Crazy town

But yeah, we were happy that night we met the prince
Quincy Jones and the midnight cowboy
And yeah we were happy the roads we drive
And weep for our heroes and can't hide our joy
And our dreams were endless
We were gorgeous
We belonged to the night
