

Badthings

Ellise

Salt inside the cut, keep it up
Rub it in and kiss me
Is it love?
Am I bound to you or just addicted?
Been on thin ice my whole life
Don't make a difference
Is it wrong that I still believe you're not the villain?

And I wasn't gonna say it
But it's getting too loud
Looking at me crazy
But I'm happy now

Flames burn
In my imagination
Hate, hurt
That's where I feel the safest
Play, destroy, the badthings bring me joy
Play, destroy, the badthings bring me joy

Arms around my back
Didn't ask for the right direction
I attract what the Devil sees and shys away from Leave me be
I don't want your help, I don't want your touch
I'm not getting freed, no
I'm complete, need the chaos
I don't need protection

And I wasn't gonna say it
But it's getting too loud
Looking at me crazy
But I'm happy now

Flames burn
In my imagination
Hate, hurt
That's where I feel the safest
Play, destroy, the badthings bring me joy
Play, destroy, the badthings bring me joy

On this stainless steel table
With the fingers poking at me
They surround me, I'm the infant in the cradle
Suffocate me, baby break me
I can take it, can I take it?

Flames burn
In my imagination
Hate, hurt
That's where I feel the safest
Play, destroy, the badthings bring me joy
