I'm leaving breadcrumbs behind me
You know where to find me

Bet you didn't know
I've been chained by bad men in the wolves' den
Not one of them would let me go
I love to be alone
But when I'm in your big arms
My broken parts could swear they're coming home

Little scared to get too crazy over you (I always feel)
Said you're made of sugar, I got a sweet tooth (Ahh-ahh)

So long to the witches
The vindictive bitches
One by one
Won't you kill them cause we both need fixing
I should be by myself
But I might want your help so
Hold on, I'm leaving breadcrumbs behind me
You know where to find me
(I'm leaving breadcrumbs behind me)
(You know where to find me)

Think I got a glow
Something that I lost once for those long months
But you're lovely and it shows
Your eyes pale as snow
Candy apple green eyes
And I'm mesmerized by the world you seem to know

Little worried I'll go psycho, kill my cool (I always feel)
But you're made from something sweet, I'll bend my rules (Ahh-ahh)

So long to the witches
The vindictive bitches

Come find me there
I'm leaving breadcrumbs behind me
You know where to find me
