

Killer

Ellise

I wanna drive my car right
Into your bedroom wall
And shatter your fragile heart
'Cause I love to watch you crawl
You're so small
Ah, you got a reputation
Let me get you educated
Got you hesitatin'
Your method's lookin' basic

I love to be lonely
And you don't do it for me
I watch you drink the poison
But I'm not Juliet and Shakespeare bores me

So you think you're a killer?
But I'm a killer too, and it's killin' you
So you think you're a villain?
But I'm a villain too, got my eye on you
You're a flame that I'll take over like a wildfire
A calamity you can't contain
So you think you're a killer?
But I'm a killer too, and it's killin' you

Did you think that I wouldn't get through the door?
Did you think that I wouldn't make it this far
Baby, I don't leave bloodsheds on the floor
Are you scared to your core?

I love to be lonely
And you don't do it for me
I chose you, you never chose me
I blessed you up without you even knowin'

So you think you're a killer?
But I'm a killer too, and it's killin' you
So you think you're a villain?
But I'm a villain too, got my eye on you
You're a flame that I'll take over like a wildfire
A calamity you can't contain
So you think you're a killer?
But I'm a killer too, and it's killin' you

Killer, killer, killer
I feel it when I'm near
A killer, killer, killer
I love the dedication but I don't got the patience

So you think you're a killer?
But I'm a killer too, and it's killin' you
So you think you're a villain? (Ah)
But I'm a villain too, got my eye on you (Eye on you)
You're a flame that I'll take over like a wildfire (Wildfire)
A calamity you can't contain (Can't contain)
So you think you're a killer? (You're a killer)
But I'm a killer too, and it's killin' you
