

Lullaby

Ellise

Switch off the light, are you scared of the dark?
You're frightened I guess that you are Fear in your eyes, you won't get very far
The door's locked, the windows are barred

Hold your tongue, don't make a sound
Hold your breath, don't let it out
I can't get you off my mind
So I'll give you a taste of how my devil sounds

Bite down, you're counting up sheep
A lullaby sings you softly to sleep
Bough breaks, you'll fall from the tree
A lullaby sings you softly to sleep

Cradle yourself underneath all the sheets
Your heart seems to cry while it beats
Can't scream for help 'cause your lips are sewn shut
You wished for the angel I'm not

Hold your tongue, don't make a sound
Hold your breath, don't let it out
I can't get you off my mind
So I'll give you a taste of how my devil sounds

Bite down, you're counting up sheep
A lullaby sings you softly to sleep
Bough breaks, you'll fall from the tree
A lullaby sings you softly to sleep
