

Over Breakfast

Ellise

Everything is wrong
Tell me what you're thinking
Almost like I blinked and now you're gone
What's inside your head? Do I wanna know?
It burns under my skin the things you said

Don't feel so good
I watch you change
Misunderstood the situation
While you fade away

Tell me over breakfast
I already know that you want to
Tell me it's a dead-end
You already got your flight booked
Tell me over breakfast
'Cause it's clear
You don't care about me how you used to
Just get me a second
Just save it for breakfast

Get out of my head
Have to be up early
Staring at the ceiling from my bed
Wish it wasn't real
Wonder if you miss me
Maybe if you kissed me, I could tell

Can't comprehend
How fast this changed
You're different
I don't even recognize your bitter face

Tell me over breakfast
I already know that you want to
Tell me it's a dead-end
You already got your flight booked
Tell me over breakfast
'Cause it's clear
You don't care about me how you used to
Just get me a second
Just save it for breakfast

Just get me a second
