

Ain't had much sleep
Seen snow in springtime
Run out of lives
Met with a sunrise

I, I know, all things come to an end
But, anyway, how've you been?

Cross through the night
Bathed in my lost time
Days. They pass by
Up for a lifetime

Know, I know, some day, our song will begin
But, anyways, how've you been?
Anyways, how've you been?
Anyways, how've you been?

Awake in my mind
I've thrown my last dice
Hope, in this try
I'll catch the last tide

I, I hear, I feel, the encore will ring
But, anyways, how've you been?

But, anyways, how've you been?
Anyways, how've you been?
Anyways, how've you been?

How've you been?
Anyways, how've you been?
How've you been?

Anyways, how've you been?
Anyways, how've you been?
