

You saw a vision of you bathing in his aura
Fan as much as lover
Healing all your lost blood
But in a moment in the dream that you had thought of Truth made out a sore touch
Turn away to be loved

Etch me in wood
Lay me in dirt
Find me between what you hold worth
Etch me in wood
Lay me in dirt
Find me inside, freed from the curse

Avalon
I cried for you this evening
Half-alone
Thank God I found my way to
Avalon
She sold her tears conflicted
Half-alone
Come on home
Avalon

If I promised heaven, would you give it up?
Even though it held you, would you let it up?
You're in need of comfort
Can I say you're tired, my love, you're tired?
So

Etch me in wood
Lay me in dirt
Find me between what you hold worth
Etch me in wood
Lay me in dirt
Find me inside, freed from the curse

Avalon
I cried for you this evening
Half-alone
Thank God I found my way to
Avalon
She sold her tears conflicted
Half-alone
Come on home
Avalon
I cried for you this evening
Half-alone
Thank God I found my way to
Avalon
She sold her tears conflicted
Half-alone
Come on home
Avalon
