

And now in a day we are brought
Here in the court of ages
Holding ground to sustain a belief
Standing here on the dock
Like the past is the law
But what is it for?
Corner man by the door
Keeps his eyes on the lock

But the law has gone away
Now I've met you (now I've met you)
And the laws of love are fate
Now I've met you (now I've met you)

Ooo
Oooo
Oooooooo
Ooo
Oooo
Oooooooo

Heard a song that my mother would sing
Freeing the birds of Asia
As they flew for the sake of the wind
It's the natural law?
As a lion would roar
I was made for your love
Corner man, listen close
Let life take it's course

But the law has gone away
Now I've met you (now I've met you)
And the laws of love are fate
Now I've met you (now I've met you)

Ooo
Oooo
Oooooooo
Ooo
Oooo
Oooooooo

Only when the law is gone could I hold you back
Embrace you back, hold you down, mama
The law is gone
To my lover, the law is gone
To my closest friend, the law is gone
Let the world know I'm back to love

Oh
Cause the law has gone away
Now I've met you
And the laws of love are fate
Now I've met you

Ooo
Oooo

Ooooooooo
Ooo
Oooo
Ooooooooo
