

Light By The Window

Elmiene

I hear noises again
Between the space you left, and in this room, I've locked me in Empty glass and a sink
A double bed to take this heavy heart I've held within

I hope I convince you to stay (Stay)
Don't wanna still be afraid (Afraid)
I've been hiding here for days
Right by the light by the window
Hope I convince you to stay (Stay)
Don't wanna still be afraid (Afraid)
I've been hiding here for days
Right by the light by the window

I want to understand
How to be alone, sometimes it doesn't go to plan (Plan, plan, plan, plan)
Sit and beg by the phone
If it rings, I might just get a little glimpse of home

I hope I convince you to stay (Stay)
I don't wanna still be afraid (Afraid)
I've been hiding here for days
Right by the light by the window
Hope I convince you to stay (Stay)
Don't wanna still be afraid (Afraid)
I've been hiding here for days
Right by the light by the window

Detrimental to my vision
Without my glasses and you're far away with no precision
I doubt that if I leave this room, it will be any different
Not really
I really doubt it, I really doubt it
Detrimental to my vision
Without my glasses and you're far away with no precision
I doubt that if I leave this room, it will be any different
Not really
I really doubt it, I really doubt it

Hope I convince you to stay (Stay)
I don't wanna still be afraid (Afraid)
I've been hiding here for days
Right by the light by the window
Hope I convince you to stay (Stay)
I don't wanna still be afraid (Afraid)
I've been hiding here for days
Right by the light by the window

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Right by the light by the window
Oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Right by the light by the window

Detrimental to my vision
Without my glasses and you're far away with no precision

I doubt that if I leave this room, it will be any different
Not really
I really doubt it, I really doubt it
Detrimental to my vision
Don't you know you need light?
Without my glasses and you're far away with no precision
I doubt that if I leave this room, it will be any different, not really Girl, you seem to take
I really doubt it, I really doubt it
The scenic route to my heart
