

Ode To Win

Elmiene

'Cause sleep and wonder, come stumbling
I made a blunder, I dreamed again
Awoken by thunder, a flash of spring
Could even not muster, an ode to win

If I leave and I'll lose it
Then I'll be a fool to the end
Step through the moment again
Hey, I'm hell blessed

If I leave and I'll lose it
Then I'll be the same that I've been
Can't help but ruin a win
Hey, I'm hell blessed

If it all ends the same then why take the fast lane (fast lane)
The fast lane (fast lane)
If it all ends the same then I'll take the long way (long way)
The long way (long way)

The lotus is calling, I know I can't speak
So I'll make a promise, that I'll try and keep
The mister lazy hey I can't see
The hope of note to win made me thief yeah

If I leave and I'll lose it
Then I'll be a fool to the end
Step through the moment again
Hey, I'm hell blessed

If I leave and I'll lose it
Then I'll be the same that I've been
Can't help but ruin a win
Hey, I'm hell blessed

All up inside me
I hate to survive
I feel like I live by the day soulless
I wait by the fire please
So hot that it burns me
This pain just might make me leave

If I leave and I'll lose it
Then I'll be a fool to the end
Step through the moment again
Hey, I'm hell blessed

If I leave and I'll lose it
Then I'll be the same that I've been
Can't help but ruin a win
Hey, I'm hell blessed

If it all ends the same then why take the fast lane (fast lane)
The fast lane (fast lane)
If it all ends the same then I'll take the long way (long way)
The long way (long way)
