

Sweetness

Elmiene

Alright

Let's not get into that, that's just unfortunate

Let's talk about sweet things, instead

Instead of sour things

Oh, yeah, mhm

Mm, yeah, oh

Ooh-oh, no, no, no

Yeah, mm

If love's bright once it beats

Mine was blind, it can't see

All the things I desired we can be

Ours went by, I can't breathe

Time will tell, well, it seems

Tired truths show me things I believe

How it dies easy

What's inside dried gradually

Sweetness was so divine to me

Gone was the one who'd care for me

Fell, would've left you gradually

Spoiled where we'd rather be

We could've been just fine

Hanging up on the vine

We would've been just fine

Hanging up on the vine

Bitter clouds circle memories

We made to be loved

What was blind, now intentional

You're hard to be 'round

When did everything that we share crash and burn down?

Am I allowed to mourn you now?

How it dies easy

When what's inside dried gradually

Sweetness was so divine to me

Gone was the one who'd care for me

Fell, would've left you gradually

Spoiled where we'd rather be

We could've been just fine

Hanging up on the vine

No, no, no

That's something I realized recently
