

Breath

Elohim

Do you ever wake up
With the weight of the world
Suffocating your lungs
So heavy you can't catch your breath
Do you ever stay up
Just to feel the silence
Beating out of your chest
Quietly weeping in bed

When I'm falling to pieces
You are my reason
To take a chance
On me
When I'm falling to pieces
You are my reason
To take a chance
On me
Take a chance
On me
Take a chance
On me

How do you find the strength to get out of bed
When you know everything's a mess
Ache and pains driving you to
Desperately pray

I'm on my knees
Begging you for answers
Gimme something that makes sense
I'm on my knees begging you for an answer
Gimme a second to catch my breath
Gimme a second to catch my
Breath, breath, breath...

Gimme a second to catch my
Breath, breath, breath...

Gimme a second to catch my
Breath, breath, breath...

Gimme a second to catch my

Do you ever wake up

So heavy you can't catch your breath
