Broken Face

Elohim

I'm screaming out of every corner of my broken face
I don't know where to put it all I'm running out of space
Switch direction cause the way I'm going isn't serving me
Anymore

Gimme grace so I can fall peacefully
I don't wanna bring you down with me

Maybe If I hit the bottom I will make it back up to the top
Maybe if I lose it all I will remember what I've got
Maybe if I smash and break, test my fate, I will be OK
Gimme grace so I can fall peacefully
I don't wanna bring you down with me

Is it obvious I'm hiding that I'm feeling everything?
I'm covering the struggling so you don't see me weak
Pieced together like a puzzle, but the pieces don't fit
Anymore

Say a prayer so I can fall gracefully
I don't wanna take you down with me

Maybe If I hit the bottom I will make it back up to the top
Maybe if I lose it all I will remember what I've got
Maybe if I smash and break, test my fate, I will be OK
Say a prayer so I can fall gracefully
I don't wanna take you down with me
