

Dreamer

Elohim

I am a dreamer
I am dreaming
I am living in my dreams

I am not lost
I am not found
I am the journey in-between

I am a seeker
I am seeking beauty in everything

I'm a believer
I believe we'll make it through anything

We are all falling
While were flying
Can you see the stars below

Your heart is shining
Just keep climbing
You'll find what you're looking for

Where we are going
All the roads keep turning into openings

If we keep going
We might turn into the lovers we both need
