

I Am The Greatest

Elohim

Life's confusing what's the point
Why are we here, where are we going?
This existential crisis is my weekly dose of Trying to fit a square peg in a round hole

Shove it through a mouth hole
Least of all expecting that I might just kinda like it

I don't wanna die but I feel so dead inside
So I remind myself to scream these words
At least 3 times

I am the greatest
I am the greatest
I am the greatest
At least that's what I tell myself
At least that's what I tell myself

Feeling better not again
The devil's disturbing my intellect
Running me up against myself
Counting the times I've needed help

I don't wanna cry but I feel so sad inside
So I remind myself to scream these words
At least 3 times
Hey

I am the greatest
I am the greatest
I am the greatest
At least that's what I tell myself
At least that's what I tell myself

At least that's what I tell myself
When I'm looking in the mirror I am, I am, I am
I am the greatest (I am the greatest)
I am the greatest (I am, I am)
I am the greatest (I am the greatest)
I am the greatest
