

Paradise

Elohim

I pack my bags, I'm ready
It doesn't matter where I go
Someone, no one can find me
Just leave the world behind me

Everybody's moving in line
Everybody's losing their mind
Everybody's searching for their own paradise
I wanna go
Everybody's searching for their own paradise

Paradise, paradise
Let me go so I can go to
Paradise, paradise
Let me go
Here they go and now they're mine
Here they go and now they're mine
Paradise, paradise
Let me go so I can go to
Paradise, paradise
Let me go

We can drive in circles
Or I can take a rocket to the stars
I will escape there
'Cause I don't care where

Everybody's moving in line
Everybody's losing their mind
Everybody's searching for their own paradise
I wanna go
Everybody's searching for their own paradise

Paradise, paradise
Let me go so I can go to
Paradise, paradise
Let me go
Here they go and now they're mine
Here they go and now they're mine
Paradise, paradise
Let me go so I can go to
Paradise, paradise
Let me go

It's sunny outside
And the birds are singing
I feel more alive
'Cause you let me go, you let me go to

Paradise, paradise
Let me go so I can go to
Paradise, paradise
Let me go
Here they go and now they're mine
Here they go and now they're mine
Paradise, paradise
Let me go so I can go to

Paradise, paradise
Let me go
