Elohim

Imagine you're running through the jungle
And a lion is chasing you
You're running your ass off and you can't get away
The lion is anxiety
You're going to learn how to go through the jungle
See the lion, and tell the lion to sit down

All my life people warned me
"Be careful, be careful"
Made me anxious everyday just to go outside
All my loud voices in my head
"Be careful, be careful"
I just kept on moving, fight or flight

Running, running, running, running
Running, running, running, woah-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh
I keep running, running, running, running
Running, running, running, woah-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh
Feet, don't fail me now

Feet, don't
Feet, don't fail me now
I keep running
Feet, don't fail me now

All my life I just feel like I'm in motion, in motion
Seems like there is always something after me
All my life I feel like I'm just hoping, just hoping
I could a stop a moment just so I can breathe

Running, running, running, running
Running, running, running, woah-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh
I keep running, running, running, running
Running, running, running, woah-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh
Feet, don't fail me now

Feet, don't
Feet, don't fail me now
I keep running
Feet, don't fail me now
