

Slow Go

Elohim

Swiftly taking over
My brain's ticking like a bomb
Inside my head I might explode
You should be aware the splatters
Are making me brittle on the heart
You might know where to start
You should probably run ahead
Take shelter from regret

I can't be saved
I can't be saved

I've been holding on to
Everything you don't like
I can't believe I couldn't see
What you could see in front of me
I must be crazy not to flee
The earth inside of me
Have you fallen to your knees?
Have you found the meaning?

I can't be saved
I can't be saved
I can't be saved
I can't be saved
I can't be saved
I can't be saved
I can't be saved
I can't be saved
