

Tiny Human

Elohim

I'm a tiny human

In a world full of humans
And I'm so miniscule
It's hard to see where I'm goin
So I'm going nowhere
And I get really selfish
And I take what I want to Cause it's all that I know

We're no bigger
Than some maggots
In a house
Think we matter
When death's the cat
And we're the mouse
Douse the flame, rent a jet, take a picture, don't forget
We're not as big as we think
In the end
We're all fuckin' tiny

A psychic once told me
I'm afraid of my body
And I'm overreacting
And we think we're so special
Riding in on high horses
Thinking that we're so funny
When we're really just mental
And it's all been done before
