

Treat You Better

Elohim

Oh my God, I can't focus anymore
Lost my thoughts when my brain walked out the door
She said, "You're way too crazy, don't deserve me anymore"
I said, "Wait, come back, I won't treat you like before"

I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
You said I'm way too crazy, it'll be just like before
But I'll treat you better
Yeah, I'll treat you better
(Better, better, better)

Happy days seem too far in between
There's gotta be a way we could find our inner peace
I scream, "You're all I've got and you're everything I need"
I swear, I promise
I'll better than I've been

I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I scream, "You're all I've got and you're everything I need"
I swear, I promise
Yeah, I'll treat you better
(Better, better, better)

I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
You said I'm way too crazy, it'll be just like before
But I'll treat you better
Yeah, I'll treat you better
(Better, better, better)

I'm fighting the feeling, I'm hitting the ceiling
And starting to make friends with myself
I keep second guessing, you gotta stop stressing
You know it ain't good for our health
You said I'm crazy, it'll be just like before
But I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better

I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
I'll treat you better
You said I'm way too crazy, it'll be just like before
But I'll treat you better
Yeah, I'll treat you better
(Better, better, better)
