

Abandoned

Eloy

All the dreams you had so far, shattered now
They discarded all plans, lost their trust in you
Apparently in vain all your valiant deeds in battles of war

Your companions, no longer at your side
Detached by royal order in captious plight
It hurts to see your tears, feel your pain, how much you're suffering now

In solitude by day, caught in sleepless nights
Only silence, no celestial sign
The holy sword has broken and you feel abandoned now

Surrounded by deceit and dishonesty
You search in vain for sincerity
A dark presentiment, warning signs, roaming in your mind

Deeply worried, full of doubts
Facing an uncertain fate
Hope and faith are fading out
We are in an awful state
The army is disbanded now
All the battles were in vain
We retreat ingloriously
What a painful shame

Now we stand alone, abandoned
But we trust in you
Stand tall, no surrender
We follow you
Fighting side by side
Until we see the glory
Of our victory

I wonder why has the king decided
Now of all times to negotiate
Despite superior force
We don't know the reasons
Have we been betrayed
In insidious way?
