

Counting out numbered time in my chamber shall I shout throw a line mind life saver many doors a cracked floor and foundation mirrored walls imaged calls slow stagnation
A skyline outmeasured
A lifetime so treasured In confusion I am anchored caged illusions still unanswered not in good shape someone showed me how to escape mirror gallery Counting out numbered time in my chamber
shall I shout throw a line mind life saver
many doors a cracked floor and foundation
mirrored walls imaged calls slow stagnation
A skyline outmeasured
Only see reflections of myself give me a direction I need help many doors a cracked floor and foundation
mirrored walls imaged calls slow stagnation
A skyline outmeasured
