The Stranger

I'm walking down a street with no end An evening wind is blowing cold Ethereal tune a radio voice Alone in the heart of the crowd What's in the air the feeling they share Looking full of hope Oh no no no: CHORUS: Sorry sorry sorry I'm not the one you've been waiting for Sorry sorry sorry I'm not the one you've been praying for The saviour from afar Collar up high a fresh cigarette Vacant windows line the way Man on the news with nothing to say They tell the same tales every day Suffering alone whispering cries trying to call I can't help you: CHORUS: Sorry sorry sorry I'm not the one you've been begging for Sorry sorry sorry I'm not the one you've been hoping for
