Acceptance

Elsiane

You’re always paranoid
Is anybody ill?
You’ve always been destroying
Is there other ways
You’re overanalyzing
How could this ever heal
Just come and face me

Something strange is happening to me
I’m overboard and hopeless here
Why don’t you finally accept just who I am
Will this ever come to an end

Here I found all my loving
Here I’m holding
Please define all my love

All my loving
All my loving
Here I’m holding
My loving
All my love

I’ve been always waiting
Will you come back home
I’ve been always aching love
I’ve been always waiting
Will you come back home
Oh my love
My love
