Elsiane

[Verse 1]

It appears to me you're trying
To reach out for all those errors as I grow
Dismembering you now as I try to stop
The chronological illness I escape
It appears to me you're crying
For all those memories of dying
Replacing survival
Why don't we discover it between ourselves
We know you've been there
Provoking, behaving, indirectly hating
We know you've been there
But heavily persuading, it's constantly decaying

[Verse 2]

It appears to me that you don't want to be here
Changing all the roads you've striving always Trying to return where you've never been
On and off from this
You never thought

[Chorus]

You could be right
You're dying on me
Betraying the life you fear
You'll find out
It's a quiet agony
Mistaken, the love you feel
You've been wasting

A life afraid from all those same mistakes
You've been waiting forever

[Verse 3]

We've constantly lost faith and always been persuading
But we're not regretting
It's always been so strange and somehow been mistaken
Why don't you just fight resistance?

[Chorus]

You could be right
You've dying on me
Betraying the life you fear
You'll find out
It's a quiet agony
Mistaken, the love you feel
You've been wasting
A life afraid from all those same mistakes

You could be right
You're dying on me
Persuading a life you fear
It's a quiet agony
Mistaken the life you fear
You've been wasting
A life afraid from all those who helped your death

Woohoo
Woohoo
