

So Far Away

Elusive

Lonely streets
And the lights are chasing shadows
Well there's only me
And that feeling
The buildings tall and dark
Sirens in the distance
Those simple words and I'd be running back
And I think you know

I never dreamed
That you were waiting here
Light my way and have my soul
I never felt like this
Never before
So close, so close
So far away

Been up all night
It takes a while
And the moment
Passed again
On the pavement
See the lights disappear
Out of words
Only cigarettes and silence

And I think you know...
