

Summer

Elusive

two hearts a secret place a frail tower holds my faith and love
when you are here
in the gardens we waited long so lost and far from dawn but you
you are here with me

when the waves are rolling high
do you feel the same
when darkness clouds the skies
I feel the pain so deep inside

I will call you

to dream a summer
for the night to come
will you be my haven
for the night so long
give me dreams of summer

burning bright dancing slow there's a tale still untold and you
you are here with me

there's a room in the city of light stole a kiss buying time and
you're not here

and the stakes been raised to high
do you feel the same
when darkness clouds the light I'm falling blinded
here tonight

I will call you
