You

Elusive

see the moment come reasons we hide
in the dark of night
there’s stars in your eyes a captured heart
right into your arms
so close
to you

I hear you whisper soft sent a chill down the spine it’s the taste of your kiss that lingers inside
shapes of angels
adrift in the sky
the way you move

now the moment here I’m loosing my mind
thought I drowned
deep in your eyes
and heavens here
the worlds still asleep
as the night rush
to an end

I hear you whisper
calling me tonight
desire is burning
and we are dancing
on the edge of a knife
shapes of angels
comes with the tide
