

The Ghosting

Elvenking

This silent gust and the vastness of the sea
Are slowly melting the skyline down in me

No, I can't stand another night
Please give me force for one last fight

I'm brooding about all the nights
In the darkness of my soul I can't close my eyes
The ghosting won't disappear
I'm slowly being consumed by my own fears

The abysmal void and the solitude profound
(Solitude profound)
Assembled quietly the seas in which I drown
The seas of guilt

So I took distance from them all
Still, I am wrecked by my recall

I'm falling...

I'm brooding about all the nights
In the darkness of my soul I can't close my eyes
The ghosting won't disappear
I'm slowly being consumed by my own fears

I'm brooding about all the nights
In the darkness of my soul I can't close my eyes
The ghosting won't disappear
I'm slowly being consumed by my own fears

The ghosting
The ghosting won't disappear
(The ghosting...)
