

The Loser

Elvenking

You don't wanna see the other side of me
Don't wanna get involved in my own situation
You wouldn't believe in what you'd see
'Cause you think I'm just a loser, crazy bastard

Well, I don't wanna run away
I just want you to get away
Lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely I will stay
Well, I don't need your empathy
Your envy or your jealousy
You'll always, always be a backward step from me

I feel alive
'Cause I'm a loser today
And so I'll be tomorrow
I feel insane
But that's my nature
And I'll never change for 'your' better

Ooh

Like in a clearance sale, you see a heart display
They're all the same and they all look like they rotten
The new collection gives the best that you can get
The heart of mine that beats to the rhythm of this sad song

Well, I will never run away
I just want you to get away
Lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely I will stay
Well, don't you think you prick the giant
Without being wiped away?
You'll always, always be a backward step from me

I feel alive
'Cause I'm a loser today
And so I'll be tomorrow
I feel insane
But that's my nature
And I'll never change for 'your' better

Behind the veil
There is a lunatic
With his out of tune emotions
Madness saved me
From all of your average lies
Average lies

"Never, oh, never
Nothing will die
The stream flows
The wind blows
The cloud fleets
And the heart beats
Nothing will die"

I feel alive

And so I'll be tomorrow
But that's my nature
And I'll never change for 'your' better

Behind the veil
There is a lunatic
