

Nothin' Lasts Forever

Elvie Shane

Summer leaves fade to gold
Waiting for the wind to take 'em down the road
Friday night fourth and longs
Turned into stories of glory days gone

First, cars, they turn to rust
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust

Nothing lasts forever on this crazy ride
Nobody wins against father time
Even rock and roll was bound to die
Nothing lasts forever but we could try

That gravel stretch we like to drive
Could turn to blacktop and painted lines
But even if the nights were to run out of moonlight
I'd still be holding onto you like

Nothing lasts forever on this crazy ride
Nobody wins against father time
Even rock and roll was bound to die
Nothing lasts forever but we could try

If we run fast enough
If we lay it all on love
Maybe we could stay ahead
Of the end catching up

Nothing lasts forever on this crazy ride
Nobody wins against father time
Even rock and roll was bound to die
'Cause nothing lasts forever on this crazy ride
Nobody wins against father time
Even rock and roll was bound to die
Nothing lasts forever but we could try
Yeah, nothing lasts forever but we could try

Nothing lasts forever, baby we could try
Baby nothing lasts forever, baby we could try
Oh nothing lasts forever, baby we could try
Nothing lasts forever but we could try
