(I Don't Want To Go To) Chelsea

Elvis Costello

Photographs of fancy tricks Go get your kicks at sixty-six he thinks of all the lips that he licks and all the girls he is going to fix

She gave a little flirt, gave herself a little cuddle
But there's no place here for the miniskirt waddle Captial punishment she's last year's model They call her natasha when she looks like Elsie
I don't want to go to Chelsea
oh no, it does not move me even though I seen the movie I don't want to check your pulse I don't want nobody else
I don't want to go to Chelsea

Everybody's got new orders be a nice girl and kiss the warders now the teacher is away all the kids begin to play men come screaming dressed in white coats shake you very gently by the throat One's named Gus, one's named Alfie I don't want to go to Chelsea oh no, it does not move me even though I seen the movie I don't want to check your pulse I don't want nobody else I don't want to go to Chelsea
